Dear Mr Garrison,

You will see what has occurred in the Senate.

We are on the point
of passing a "bill
banning all acts
or parts of acts for the pursuit of fugitive slaves, like John Henry 'of Ohio' inter-

peru to keep alive
the attack of 1793;
a fort of Custer
followed with an elaborate speech which he adored.

The vote on favor of slave-hunting struck 24 to 17, a.
Thus the republican
is the majority.
If the anti-slavery

Bartle and not become so sluggish, this could not have taken place.
Cannot you help to arrive at?

The practical means -
we are to clean the statue - took &
all support of slavery.

Ever yours,
Chas. A. Loring
